Variety and beauty of Turkey is her face that she shows to both Europe and Asia because this country is like a frontier on the border of these parts of the world. Anatolia is the principal part of this wonderful country and it is located in Asia Minor. And only 3 percent of its territory belongs to Europe. Turkey is mostly the land of hills and rocks. Lowlands are not the trait of this wonderful country. They are situated only on the seashores and in the vales of the rivers. 3 seas are situated around the country: Aegean, Black and Mediterranean.

The eastern territory of Anatolia is definitely cool in winter. The temperature falls down here to 30 degrees below zero. But on the coast of the Mediterranean Sea warm subtropical climate prevails. There are 66 million of people live there and the population is calmly growing now. Ankara is Turkey's capital. It is situated in the middle part of Anatolia. But what city is the best association with Turkey? Of course it is Istanbul, which ages ago was called Constantinople. It embraces Bosphorus strait and lies in both Europe and Asia continents. 15 million of people today live in this old, big and marvelous city. The main portion of Turkey's industrial capability is situated right here.

The state tongue is Turkish. It concerns to the Turkic languages that are widespread from Balkans to Siberia. It may transform and this quality was used during the language reform in the XX century. During a few ages Turks used Arabian ABC that was not convenient for their tongue. In 1928 it was changed to the Roman alphabet. It is really so for Turkish that many words are completely the identical in writing and pronunciation. But there were some other changes in the structure of the language. Many changes were performed in the vocabulary. Linguists erased the Arabian and Persian words. Scholars used some other notions of different Turkic nationalities. And new equivalents for the terms that didn't exist in the language were performed.

Turks are the principal nation of the country. But a plenty of other peoples dwell and develop Turkey. The look of a Turk may vary in diverse parts of the country. You can find here blonds and dark haired people and all of them are Turks. The main group of society worships of Islam. For a long time Turkish lira stays the invariable currency of this country. In 1923 Ottoman Empire turned into the Republic of Turkey and this day became a national holiday.

But you may also decide to go to Canakkale. There you may do anything you like because it seems that citizens have built this city for your satisfaction. Marvelous service and amicable people will make you remember this place to the end of your life.

Dardanelles share Europe and Asia so here is the best way from one place to another. Through this way Greeks came to war with Persians and vice versa. Troy was built here in the twelfth century before Christ. Trojan rulers didn't like to let go Greeks through this path and it was the cause for the Trojan War. 6 centuries after that one of the first known writers Homer described the war in his epic poems. Ages later people thought that Troy is a mythological place but H. Schliemann decided to discover it and he did it in the XIX century.

But everything depends on you look at the map and decide where to go. It can be Isparta, Kutahya, Zonguldak or a lot of other places of this beautiful land.
