Group Travel - A Rising Trend

Group travel is becoming increasingly popular around the world, as it saves plenty of money, and is safe as well.

Traveling becomes an unforgettable experience for life time when we have a gang of friends around us who can fill every moment of the journey with fun and laughter. Generally group travel is when family, friends, classmates, coworkers and teams visit a destination together.

This travel exceeds the spectrum of friends and family to church conventions and grand corporate meetings. However, the merits of having group travel are not confined to just fun and laughter filled moments, but there are numerous advantages attached to it.

Group travel from the perspective of travel industry

According to airlines, a group of more than 10 people on the same itinerary is known as group travel. Any group meeting this requirement can avail the benefits of group travel.

In the same manner, the hotel industry takes the booking of 5-10 rooms as group. Nowadays a wide range of travel agencies are available that offers facilities like discounted group rates and complimentary room nights, being the major ones.

Group travel ensures safety and facilitates reasonable charges, which make it a cost effective option for the whole group. It is commonly seen that money is the only factor that abstains people from traveling to different locations. Group travel supports the vacationers to minimize the cost of accommodation, food and traveling expenses.

There is a vast array of group travels and following are listed some of them:

? Family reunions: Vacations are best for family reunions as all can have fun and a nice time together. Nowadays children take to their grandparents or vice versa to family cruise or safari trip. They cherish different activities, which become unforgettable memories for a lifetime.

? Church conventions: These are traditional groups that travel together for religious purposes.

? Conferences and meetings: These group travels facilitate corporate seminars of sales, international conference, executive treat, award ceremonies, break out sessions and incentive events among the major ones.

? Weddings: It has become "in" to have destination weddings and is growing at a fast rate. In these weddings, couples decide to have a wedding in warm and exotic destinations and along with them all the family members and, friends go with them to enjoy few days full of cherished moments.

There are so many websites available on the wide network of Internet that provides a large pool of varieties of group travel agencies. These are specialized people who take care of every need of its group travelers. From food to accommodation to commuting services all are booked in advance, which makes the trip comfortable and hassle free.

The added advantage that comes with these group travels is the insurance against any kind of risk. Under these insurances, all the members of group are insured against different specified risks.

Following are listed some of the covered risks:

? Deaths or injuries in case of terrorist attack or accident.

? Serious injuries or personal accidents sustained in train/car/air accidents.

? In case of illness when on group travel.

? Loss of all or some business/personal items during travel

? Losses due to delay in flights or cancelled flights.
