

Check by Phone Software

Check by Phone offers your customers the availability of the products they have purchased quickly. Accepting check by phone transport the products bought immediately. Indeed, no more COD hassles and no more waiting for paper checks to arrive and clear.

When your customer agreed to pay over the phone and you'll process their check, you and your customer will be charged with inexpensive banking fees. You can target prospective clients with the convenience of accepting check over the phone. If your customer is unaware of his or her funds, present to your customer the convenience of using the phone to check his or her account.

No more banking trips for checking the customer's account!

Upon having the payment from your clients, you will need his or her authorization to debit his or her checking or savings account.

Inform your customer to provide his or her banking information such as:

- name
- address

Bank information like:

- bank's routing number
- account number
- check number

Once you have the authorization from the customer, you are in control of being paid. Using the banking information provided by your customer, you simply enter the information on an Internet based software program like Check Writer Software to collect check by phone sales. Payment on approved checks is guaranteed! Merchandise can be shipped immediately, no need to wait for checks to clear! The check by phone amount moves from your customer's checking or savings account into your business checking account within 24 to 48 hours!

As business owners, accepting check by phone with the Check Writer System will benefits you with the opportunity to escalate your market prospective, reduces business cost, quick funds transfer, and payment will easily availed.

Check by phone increases your market potential, inexpensive business costs and quick to accessibility of funds to earn business profit. Accepting check by phone makes as easy as paying by credit card capable to immediate imbursement of goods and services. Check processing costs depends on the volume of checks to be processed monthly, ideally, will almost always be less than the expenses of accepting credit cards;

Check by phone presents billing simple with Easy Check Writer™ - an online electronic check processing system.

For more info visit: Check by Phone Software

About the Author

I am Sebastian Grenier, and I am here to help businesses who are having difficulties in collecting payments from their costumers. We have a product called check by phone software that will surely benifit you businesses. Thousands of companies are benifited by our software. No more waiting for checks, the easy way of collecting payments!

Source: <http://www.tntarticles.com>