Functionality is never sacrificed with the latest laptop bags. These bags include features like durable padding, locks, convenient outside pockets, water resistant zippers, and compartments for your cell phone and MP3 players. Many brands, like Edotsquare, are so feather light that you can carry them all around town without trouble. The Loopbag Vanguard Messenger Bag is perfect for taking your laptop on the go, even while hiking or traveling rough. This playfully mischievous design will protect your laptop from bump and bruises and make you look stylish.

You can also find accessories, like covers and iPod cases that match your bag for a completely put together look.
