

What Makes uVme Stand Out From The Crowd?

The uVme skill games business encapsulates three of the most exciting phenomena online today - online games entertainment, social networking using web 2.0 and a new way of network marketing which is being described as "social marketing/network marketing 2.0" Never before has a company brought a product to market that unites these three global mega trends – until now, with uVme!

The internet is the fastest growing marketplace in the history of the world but the online skill gaming market is growing four times faster than the rate of overall internet growth. Today (2007) the online skill games market is worth $5.2 billion USD. In other words, $164 USD are spent globally every second by individuals enjoying online skill based games. In just three years time this figure is forecast to grow to a staggering $412 USD per second.

With this huge growth explosion in the worldwide playing of skill games online, uVme's entry to this market could not have been timed any better. The uVme unique online business opportunity is not only tapping into the incredible casual gaming sector but also the booming online social networking market. The growth statistics for this industry are equally impressive. Online social networks are growing at a rate of 46% per year. I'm sure that you have come across MySpace at some point. MySpace is the world's largest social network and in only four years has already attracted in excess of 200 million members.

The uVme skill games business has cleverly linked these two mammoth trends and packaged them within an international affiliate program for all to enjoy. The casual skill games platform, with its suite of specialised games, was created by uVme's very own highly skilled gaming experts at their Bangalore office. The casual games are owned solely by uVme and are not licensed to anyone else.

There are two options for the business minded individual to choose when joining uVme. Firstly, you can become a uVme games promoter. This option allows you to earn commission from games players on your very own gaming website as they partake in online games tournaments for cash prizes. Secondly, you can become a fully fledged uVme associate. You receive the same benefits as the games promoter but in addition you can build a network of other uVme associates as well. This option gives you the opportunity to tap into all areas of the lucrative uVme pay plan. uVme associates earn commission from all the games played on all the websites of their team members. This is the option for those individuals seeking the large pay cheques.

One of the major benefits that uVme has over its competitors is the level of support that is offered to its associates. The uVme support team consists of real people who help the associates develop their businesses by offering a solution driven level of personal service, complete with live telephone and e-mail support seven days a week. To find out more about this ground breaking international games program, join for free today and you will instantly have access to your very own business building website and Insiders' Report.
