

The 5 Recommended Holiday Destinations

The daily grind of city life takes the glow out of you. Spending a great holiday in the company of your loved ones will surely recharge you with loads of energy. The experiences you gather will stay on for life. Read about the topmost holiday destinations of the world and pick the one that will make your travel experience truly memorable!

1. Whitsunday Islands – Surrounded by the Great Barrier Reef, Whitsunday Islands on the Queensland coast of Australia is famous as a calm and serene holiday destination. The place comprises of 74 islands of which only eight are inhabited. People from all over the world visit this place for family vacations, whereas honeymooners come here in search of privacy and romance. Whitsunday Islands has the beautiful Bowen beaches in the north and the wonderful Laguna Whitsundays golf greens in the south. The arresting sugar mills and captivating cane fields of inland Proserpine River are sure to charm your heart! The holiday package you choose will give you ample scope to lose yourself in the white sand beaches. The beauty of the coral reefs, along with the stunning crystal clear waters of the ocean, is bound to mesmerize you!

2. France – One of the most favored holiday destinations for tourists across the world, France offers adventure vacations, shopping, castle-hopping and a lot more that you could ever ask for! The 22 regions of the country have their own cultural peculiarities, history, food and wine to charm the visitors. Riviera and the Cote d'Azur along with Ile-de-France in Paris and the Loire Valley are the most visited destinations.

3. Puerto Rico – Majestic mountain ranges, dense rain forests and white sand beaches, along with year round summer temperatures make Puerto Rico a much sought-after family holiday destination. This exotic island has been divided into 5 main regions. Some of the hottest spots to visit in Puerto Rico are Arecibo Observatory in Arecibo, El Yunque, caves of Ciales, Mona Island Iglesia Porta Coeli and Serralles Castle.

4. Greek Islands – The emerald seas, the wonderful clear sky and the densely wooded hillsides of the Greek Islands find tourists from all over the world coming here to experience the coastal magnificence of Europe. The popular Greek Islands like Rhodes, Corfu, Mykonos and Santorini have their own airports. The quiet resorts that are tucked away from the main tourist trail are ideal for enjoying long-walks, exotic beaches and eye-catching tavernas.

5. Rio de Janeiro – The breathtaking beaches, the lush green mountains and the Cariocas (local residents) of this Marvelous City in Brazil are sure to leave you wanting for more! The huge numbers of international tourists that throng the city have made it one of the top holiday destinations of the world. Budget hotels to luxury resorts, restaurants serving mouth-watering exotic cuisines to casinos, and samba dance – you can get all that you want in Rio de Janeiro. Holiday packages to this destination include activities like hiking, cycling, outdoor rock-climbing, soccer, surfing and a lot more! And while talking about Rio de Janeiro, who can forget the wonderful statue of Christ the Redeemer?

A great vacation with family or friends at any of these holiday destinations will rejuvenate your body and soul. So, pack your bags and take off for the perfect vacation that you have always dreamt of!

About the Author

Jason Sands is an experienced travel advisor and currently organises Whitsunday holidays and tours along with boat hire for sailing Whitsundays

Source: <http://www.tntarticles.com>