

What Makes a Tutor Good?

It is easier for a tutor to command than to teach: John Locke

A good tutor is very much responsible for shaping up a bright and successful career. He or she is the person who understands the flaws of a person and helps a student to get rid of it as soon as possible.

In modern times, tutors are in great demand. They impart their skills and knowledge to children or learners to gain in fiercely competitive market and become a successful person.

With the changing times, the ways of teaching has also revolution to a great extent. Online tutor has been an evolving concept benefiting people around the world. In this concept, tutors usually register themselves with numerous websites and invite offers from interested learners. When both the parties agrees on the contract, they meet up at a common place and help each others to realize the goals of better knowledge, understanding and success rate.

Qualities of a Good Tutor:

A good tutor is the one who understands, solves and increases the output of his or her troubled student or learner. He is an expert who carefully examines a child's problem and provides him adequate solutions to overcome his or her situation. Below mentioned are some of the interesting qualities of a good tutor:

- Warm and generous in nature.
- Have a great sense of humor.
- Listen and understands students.
- Compels to make others think.
- Helps a student to understand the consequences of your deeds.
- Help you to understand the content of the course.
- Apply their experiences and strategies to improve the situation of a student.
- Appreciates positive outlook and criticizes fro make you improve
- Acts as a backbone when you make mistakes
- Make you prepared fro facing challenges.
- Sets priorities for you
- Patient with your moves and encourages you often
- Implement different activities
- Gives you constant feedback
- Experiment with education and make it really interesting.
- Help students from time to time

About the Author

The aforementioned article has been contributed by the webmaster of www.orbitutors.com . An online tutor database where you can find a tutor as well as search tutor for all subjects in your local area.

Source: <http://www.tntarticles.com>