

Limousine hire tips

Limousine is one of the most luxurious sedans available in automobile industry. In most of the happy occasions, these types of sedans are hired. They not only add beauty to your occasion but also catch the eyes of the guests.

Choosing a limousine style is not one of the more important decisions you will have to make in life, however you maybe surprised at the amount of distinct stylish limousine types there are today. From the classic Luxury Sedan to the ultra trendy Supper Stretch Hummer, there is a limousine that will fit anyone personal taste.

Before limousine hire there are a number of things you need to check over inside and outside the limousine around the chauffeur and within the limousine hire company you are using so here is a run through of the things you should know before you settle into your limousine.

- Prepare your questions in advance
- Know who you are dealing with (Trading name, physical address, landline number etc)
- Don't be frightened of asking probing questions.
- Insist on viewing images of the actual limousine or visit the premises
- Get everything in writing, the quotation and the itinerary
- Make sure you are comparing on a genuine 'like for like' basis
- Consider hiring your limousine mid-week, where significant savings can be gained
- Never be tempted to decide on price alone
- If in doubt, keep searching!

When shopping around for the best price and deal on limousine hire, you may find that there are some prices which vary greatly from company to company. This may be due to many factors, one of which is the inclusions or package you are getting.

There are also standard inclusions which you should be able to expect from every limousine hire service. These include a formally dressed chauffeur, an umbrella for sunny or rainy days and drinks or a bar available.

The most popular stretched limousine available in the UK is the Ford Lincoln Town car 120 stretched limousines. In the UK, these will typically be aged from a 1990 model through to a 2007 model, during this period there were three, fairly distinctive styles. The years of manufacture are approximated because the models may have been changed mid-year and some may have been stretched later.

That other great Marquee in the United States Cadillac was also subject to the coachbuilders' attention with donor cars being used to build Cadillac stretched limousines. For a number of reasons, the UK market has never really taken to the Cadillac in the same was as the Lincoln Town car, so the Cadillac is still something of a rarity in the UK. Cadillac has a similar approval program for a coachbuilder which is called the Cadillac Master Coachbuilder (CMC).

So, you can see that Limousine hire companies feel that the demand and growth of this business have risen over the last decade. They feel that inexpensive eminence always attracts patrons. Limousine hire is not as simple as you think and your limousine rental service, might just take you for quite a ride, if you're not very careful. It's therefore quite important that you select a good and reliable limousine service and ensure a smooth and safe ride all the way.
