- The foremost, you can view the guide in different formats comprising HTML along with links so as to explain the quest. Alternatively, the PDF format is easy to download or you can simply get off with the print outs of the guide.
- Several maps have been included in the guide along with the numbered steps. Additionally, the path that a player requires to take to get to each step is also mentioned clearly.
- Joana's Horde leveling Guide comprises of a resourceful inventory of generic tips that prove helpful in the WoW experience.
- Some helpful hunter tips have also been included in the guide. It is so that Joana usually uses a hunter as his character.
- Videos have also been included to simplify the entire guide. So, the videos along with maps make it easy even for the players with less experience to comprehend and let them know as to where to move and what should be done next.

Let's now discuss the Joana's Horde Leveling Guide (1-70) in detail. The guide is laid out in different leveling sects. These sects are categorized according to the areas the player is in and the quests that he should be capable of carrying out. For instance, the player might be in Stanglethorn Vale at level 42-43. Here, they can either start or complete over a dozen quests before they move to Dustwallow Marsh to get more level 43 leveling.

The player gets back to Stranglethorn Vale to complete level 47. So, it is clear here, that each sect encompasses the quests that are supposed to be completed immediately. Thus, the quests that are tough and are left to be completed later are not included.

Each sect in the guide is divided into two sections. On the left side, the player gets to know about the summary of all the WoW quests that should be accepted by the player and completed as well in the most proficient order. Here the player would find quest guide links to Allakhazam for each Warcraft quest.

On the right side, the player has an area map indicating the places to go to complete various quests. The map proves highly invaluable to the players as they are able to find mob spots quickly. At the bottom, a link to that areas indicating video is also included (both low as well as high quality versions).

To conclude, it can be summarized that Joana's Horde Leveling Guide (1-70) is really helpful in maximizing the WoW experience in the fastest possible speed and in the least amount of time. If you are keen to know about these guides.
